Latest from France.

New-York, Oct. 17.

By the arrival last evening of the ship Hibernia, captain Graham, from Havre, we have received Paris papers to the 1st of September. Previous to captain Graham's sailing from Havre, (7th Sept.) he read London Gazettes of the 3d of that month, and states that they were barren of news.

No accounts had been received relative to the operations of Lord Exmouth at Algiers; nor had any other event of moment transpired.

At Havre, cotton was, Sea Island, 8 75 to 8 90; Upland, 2 20 to 2 55; New Orleans, 2 30 to 2 60; rice, 27 1/2; pot and pearl ashes, 70f.

We have had a cursory view of a file of Paris papers, to the 31st of August, containing London dates to the 27th. The British Parliament had been further prorogued to the 4th of November.

FROM CADIZ.

We learn from capt. Tibbets, who arrived this forenoon from Cadiz, that Mr. Meade, the American Consul, was still confined in the Castle. There was no news at Cadiz of Lord Exmouth's squadron.

MORE SPECIE.—Twelve thousand Spanish Dollars arrived this forenoon, in the brig Indian Chief, from Lisbon.

PARIS, Sept. 5.

The operations of the committee appointed to digest a plan for the re-organization of public education, are determined. This work will be discussed in the Councils of Ministers before being presented to the two houses.

The rains recommenced on Friday last and continued in a manner most deplorable for the harvests, which are not yet finished in many parts of the country. The temperature has become at the same time extremely cold, than which nothing can be more unfavorable to the vine. There was frost last night and snow fell this morning, mingled with rain.

Mr. Duret, a distinguished statuary, has died, aged 86 years.

The approaching marriage of the Emperor of Austria is the subject of many conjectures at Vienna. Besides the Princess Augusta of Saxony, the Princess Amelia, daughter of Prince Maximilian of Saxony, a Princess of only 20 years old, is talked of as the person who will fix the choice of his Majesty.

The agents of Christopher at Hamburg continue to recruit artists and scavans. A Hessian officer has been appointed chief of the Haytian artillery, with a very large salary.

LONDON, Aug. 30.

The city of Preston in Lancashire is partly lighted with gas. The length of the principal pipes already laid down, is one thousand yards; and they calculate the next winter they place in this space more than 900 tumors, which will send forth a light equal to that of 4000 candles, sixes to a pound. The plan of lighting a large extent by a single fire placed in an elevated place has been realized at Preston.

London, August 30.

We have received news from Naples, announcing the arrival of an American squadron under the orders of Commodore Chauncey, with Mr. Pickney on board, who has demanded from that government four millions of dollars as an equivalent for American property confiscated during the reign of Murat. Mr. Pickney has accompanied this claim, with a threat of bombarding the city, if not attended to. The demand has nevertheless been rejected, and they are preparing to give the Americans a warm reception. The government has constructed furnaces for hot balls, to be fired from the large guns in the batteries. The Austrian troops, of whom there are 13,000 in the king's service, occupy the castle and the forts. The Neapolitans look for the arrival of an English squadron to prevent the Americans commencing hostilities.

SUMMARY.

Paris, Sept. 3.

The departure of the Spanish expedition to Mexico is still looked on as distant. The Spaniards are occupied regulating their tariffs. Our envoy from the emperor of Morocco has arrived at Civita Vecchia, and has repaired to Rome on a special mission to the Pope. On the 7th August, there was a new eruption of Vesuvius which lasted several hours. The plague has ceased. The city of Venice jealous of the advantages which the Austrian government has granted to Trieste, where all the grand commercial operations of the empire are concentrated, Austria has placed in a state of defence all the frontiers of Dalmatia, Styria and Illyria. The king of Wurtemberg has acceded to the treaty of the holy alliance. The duke of Kent is expected at Stuttgart, where he expects to pass some days with his sister the queen of Wurtemberg. The Bank of Hamburg has been re-established some time. We learn that some diplomatic negotiations of considerable importance are going on at Frankfurt. The Austrian and Prussian ministers have interfered with the elector of Hesse in favor of the dispossessed holders of the national domains. The Congress of the United States, in its last session, has granted a million of dollars for materials for building ships and fortresses; has fixed the permanent arm at 18,000 men; augmented the navy; authorized the distribution of $100,000 among the conquerors of Algiers; and given medals to captains Stewart and Biddle, their officers and men, for their courage in naval engagements since the last congress; 17 ships of the line and 22 frigates are at this moment on the stocks, besides 20 steam frigates, which are floating batteries, bomb proof, and destined to defend the ports and roads. The result of the war between England and America, has thus given to the latter the ambition of making a figure among the military powers, a result which will one of these days create an additional power in the political balance.

New York, Oct. 18.

BUENOS AYRES.

The following extract of a letter from Buenos Ayres, said to be dated Aug. 27, has been published in the Mercantile and Commercial Advertiser:

"At this moment the artillery is ordered out, and I am about starting to witness the expected battle."
No letters from that province later than the 31st of July, have reached this country to our knowledge, either directly or circuitously.

Another account, bringing dates to the 14th July, was published in the Balmore Federal Republican of the 14th inst. and stated that the Portuguese had joined the Royal Party, and actually had arrived in the river with a strong naval and military force.

The schooner Adeline at Philadelphia and Maria at N. York, left the city of Buenos Ayres on the 31st July, and the mouth of La Plata, on the 2d Aug., which time no news whatever had been received of the arrival of any fleet there, although it was well known that a fleet had left Rio Janeiro, and every thing was prepared to give the expedition a proper reception.

The following statement, received by the Adeline, may explain the expected battle mentioned in the letter of the 7th August, allowing the date to be corrected.

In the month of May or June, the Cañedo or Municipal Board of Buenos Ayres, displaced the Director Alvarado, and appointed pro tempore for the General Congress had the power of re-appointments, the Director Balcarce, new Director, however, Porillon, was named by the congress then setting at Tucuman, a considerable distance in the interior; and as he was daily expected, the Cañedo thought proper about 10th July, to take the administration of the government into their own hands until his arrival.

Dorre, a colonel commanding black troops at Lujan, a village leagues off, and Diezvelas, another colonel with a small command, probably friends of the displaced director, refused to obey the orders of the Cañedo, and would only consider themselves subject to the officers appointed by the General Congress. As the congressional director had not arrived, the Government of Buenos Ayres ordered the troops of the city militia, in order to bring to obedience the two refractory colonels. The militia was hardly to be expected, as power was so divided. But at no time was property considered in any jeopardy, nor was any fear of a return of the old government so much as thought of.

On the 8th July, the congress assembled at Tucuman, and declared the United Provinces of Rio de la Plata, a free and independent Government. This news was daily made known to war columns. Mr. Halsey, and has been communicated by him to his own government.

On the 31st July, previously to the sailing of the Maria, the director Porillon arrived at Buenos Ayres, took the command in the name of the United Provinces, and order and tranquility were completely restored.

Boston 30th July.

FROM CADIZ.

By arrivals yesterday from Cadiz, accounts are received from 6 at place to the 23th August. No news had been heard from Lord Exmouth's fleet since it left Gibraltar, August 14, for Algiers. The silence of these accounts as to the events reported by the way of Tenerife is sufficient evidence that they had not occurred. Letters from Madrid, mentioned in a London paper, say, "the American Ambassador has proposed to abandon the claims of his government for seizures under Bonaparte's decrees, on condition of West Florida being ceded by Spain to the United States, but the Ferdinand's Ministers declined all negotiations on the subject."

Extract of a letter from Malaga, August 15.

"Commerce for the present is totally ruined. Idleness of doing anything this year. Nearly 300,000 staves have arrived here in two ships; and if a purchaser could be found, the price would not more than cover the freight.
20,000 pipes staves have been sold at 90 dollars at 6 months credit, and storage paid for 12 months by the seller. Rice at 5 dollars. Our harvest for wheat is good."

Extract of a letter from Buenos Ayres, dated 21st July.

"The people have obtained their independence, but the state is divided into three parties, all struggling for the government, they have been under arms twice since my arrival here, the rage is burning and I expect they will eventually among themselves."

Federal Nomination.—The Federal citizens of Boston, at a meeting held at the Exchange Coffee House on the 13th inst. nominated the Hon. James Lloyd as candidate to represent the Suffolk District in the next Congress. A vote of thanks was unanimously given to the Hon. Mr. Ward, who had declined a reelection, for his able and faithful services as the representative of that District in Congress for the last four years.

Extract of a letter from Pittsburg, dated Oct. 12, 1846.

"Henry Baldwin, Esq. the Federal Candidate, is elected to Congress, by the overwhelming majority of upwards of 1000 votes. The Sheriff and County Commissioner, Federal, are also elected, as likewise two Federal members of Assembly, viz. Messieurs. Gilmore and Woods."

FROM LAKE HURON.

Extract of a letter from an intelligent officer of the United States army, to his friend in this place, dated 2d September, Camp on Fox river, (Green Bay).

"You will perceive that I have been pushed to the remotest frontier post that we have."

A detachment of artillery, four companies of infantry and two of Riflemen, commanded by Col. John Miller, comprising the force that performed the expedition, from Micanaw to this place. We sailed on the 28th of July in four vessels, and arrived in the mouth of this river on the 8th of August last. Two companies of Riflemen, and the same of the 3d Infantry, under the command of Lt. Col. Chambers, constitute the force for this post. The other troops accompanied us as a precaution against any opposition from the Indians, who had been represented as hostile, and having embodied themselves to the number of eight hundred warriors, but we found them few and most humble.

The vessels in which we came were the first of so large a size that had ever attempted the navigation of this Bay, which was found both easy and safe. The bar opposite the mouth of this river was supposed to have only three feet water upon it; but on examination a channel of three fathoms water was discovered to cross it. This bay is calculated to be about ninety miles long and Mackinaw about one hundred and sixty miles from this place, a much shorter distance than agreeable to the French computation.

This river empties on the S. W. extremity of the Bay, is about four hundred yards wide, of a gentle current, and sufficiently deep to the portage for boats of considerable burthen, a distance of one hundred and sixty miles from this mouth, thence to the Ousegoon, is one and an half miles and the Mississippi one hundred and sixty. The erection of a fort at the Portage next year is in contemplation—Maj. Grant, who is here, has selected for ours the position of the old French Fort, which is about one mile from the mouth of this river—it is only fifteen feet above the river, yet it commands the adjacent country, for at least a mile, and although contiguous to the several marshes is very healthy indeed, quite as much so as Mackinaw.

One half mile above this commences a French settlement extending the distance of five miles on both sides of the river, occupied by forty families, who emigrated from the Canadas and France in the year 1720, in company with the missionaries, the French sent into their Indian Territories, and a small military force intended for their protection. But since the time of the surrender of this country to the British by the peace of 1763, these people being out of the reach of protection, have been exposed to Indian depredations, cruelty and barbarity, and although in the possession of extensive and fertile farms, they were deterred from making any exertions to acquire more than a fair subsistence, from the certainty that all above that, and often their all, would be taken by the first band of Indians that might visit the settlement.—The people are therefore indolent and some have adopted the Indian life.

By intermarriage with the Indians, & a long residence here, nearly the whole of this population is of the "half breed." There is not a white female in the settlement; all speak fluently the Indian language (Chippewa and Ojibwa). It would be expected from these circumstances, that neighboring Indians would be attached to them, yet, on every pretence, they steal their horses, kill their cattle and rob their farms. Several have suffered in this way since our arrival.

Markets at Cadiz very dull—rice 4 1-4 to 4 1-2; tobacco 75 ds. dull; staves 70 to 80; corn 2 50; beef and pork unsaleable; tar, pitch and rosin 3 to 2 25; flour, new, 7 50; wine, Sherry, 32 ds. qr. cask; Malaga 19; Catalonia, 12 per pipe; Exchange on London, 30 1-2. Capt. Scott has brought dispatches for government.

A ventriloquist has been banished from the states of Parma for some unlucky specimens of his art. Following a funeral procession to Plaisance he heard the bearer of the Cross ask on which side he should turn, the procession having arrived at a cross way. The ventriloquist, imitating the voice of the deceased, said—"When I was alive I went on this side where we are." These words spread terror amongst the people present, every one fled and the dead was left alone. In another instance, under the portico, where wheat is sold there is a provisional prison destined for those who disturb the market. The ventriloquist sent forth cries as of a poor prisoner torn by a mad cat. All the inhabitants of the town, together with the Gendarmes and the troops of the corps De Garde, in consequence assembled, when the trick was discovered and the ventriloquist arrested.

LONDON PAPER.

TO PREVENT DIVORCES.

One of the Paris Journals has published the following anecdote, in which the law for suppressing divorce gives a certain appropriateness. "In Zurich, the husband and wife who apply for a divorce on the ground of incompatibility of humour, are shut up together for a fortnight in a tower on the Lake. They have only one apartment, one chair, one knife, &c. so that for sitting or sleeping, eating or resting, they are completely dependant on each other's compliances. It seldom happens that they are not reconciled before the fortnight expires."

MONTREAL, Canada, Oct. 4.

In the last court of King's Bench term at Three Rivers, the Hon. Judge Bedard, was fined 50l. damages and costs of suit, for having falsely committed to Jail, Charles Ogden, Esq. one of the Barristers of that Court, and the King's Counsel for the district, for a pretended contempt of his Honour, and for having published a pretended Libel in the Montreal Herald. This Libel was nothing else, but his Honour's usual rule of practice, and some judicious remarks accompanying them, which the honourable court pronounced to be no libel, and proper to be published. Mr. Ogden would have received much greater damages, had he not instructed his counsel, to inform the court, that vindictive damages were not his object. He only wished to expose his inconsistency and tyranny of Judge Bedard, for having violated the liberty of his fellow subject.

THE subscriber offers for sale the Estate whereon he resides in the county of Fauquier, about 8 miles below the court-house, on Cedar Run, between the roads leading to Fredericksburg and Occoquan, 30 miles distant from either place, and 40 to Alexandria by the turnpike, from Buckland. The tract is computed at and is divided into three farms, with Woodland and Meadows, conveniently distributed for each. There is a Valuable Mill Seat,

with stone on the spot for building. The stream is abundant, and waters the whole tract, presenting an extent of

Four or five hundred Acres of Low Grounds of first quality. The high land is well divided into regular fields, some of them very productive, and is adapted to the use of Plaster. Few tracts can possess greater advantages either for extensive grazing or grain culture.

The purchaser or purchasers of the land, can be accommodated with the farming utensils, the crops of Corn and the sown Wheat—the stock of Cattle, Horses, Sheep and Hogs; and with the Negroes on the estate in families, making about 150, of a very valuable description, with some tradesmen.

The improvements are a comfortable Dwelling House, with good out Houses, Ice House, Stables, &c. The situation is healthy and the water uncommonly good. Two thirds of the whole purchase money will be required at the delivery of the property, the balance in short payments with interest and secured by a deed of trust.

SULLY FOR SALE.

THIS estate, situated in the county of Fairfax, twenty-two miles from Alexandria and the same distance from Georgetown, contains about seven hundred and fifty acres. Little River Turnpike passes through it half a mile from the dwelling house. The situation is handsome, and remarkably healthy; the water is good and abundant. The soil, which was originally excellent, has for some years past had the advantage of improving husbandry, Plaster of Paris acting with powerful and immediate effect on all grasses and grains. The fields present a good surface for cultivation; and those, now untilld, are covered with red clover. The orchards are very large and thrifty: the collection of table fruit is choice and various. The mansion is spacious and well constructed; the out-houses are all conveniently situated; those for farming purposes are expensive, and excellent in their kind.

For a gentleman of leisure this would be a delightful residence; and a profitable estate to an active farmer. The title is indisputable, and perfectly unimpaired.

A number of well taught orderly young men, with good stocks and farming utensils of all kinds, and the crops of the present year if desired, will be at the command of the purchaser.

Application may be made to the subscriber, living on the premises, next the post office at Pleasant Valley, in Fairfax.
